

Data Protection: Our Compliance with GDPR

As you may be aware, the European Union enacted the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which will take effect on May 25, 2018. While Moms in Prayer Europe is based in Switzerland, we serve many women in the EU and are committed to be GDPR compliant.

Privacy Policy/Terms of Use

Moms in Prayer International commits to you that we will never sell, lease or rent your confidential personal information. We will take every available step to assure that your personal and financial information that you provide to us will remain secure. We want you to feel safe in your online experience while visiting our site. We, therefore, request that you take a moment to review the following valuable information.

Collection of Information

Moms in Prayer International does NOT collect personal information without your knowledge while you are visiting our web site. However, Moms in Prayer International allows you to provide personal information on our web site. The type of information we collect directly corresponds with the service you request. For instance, you can make donations, register your group, sign up to receive emails, etc. The type of information we collect is only the information necessary to facilitate our response to your specific request such as your name and contact information.

If you are registering as the leader of a group, Moms in Prayer International will collect the information necessary to complete this transaction which will include your contact information, which will be stored in a secure database. The information is used to connect other moms to you and your prayer group. Information is also used to mail / email you ministry updates and encouragement. For those donating to the ministry, your information is used to track your donations so we can issue a thanksgiving letter or receipt for income tax purposes.

If you offer your thoughts, comments, opinions, concerns, ideas, personal experience testimonies, request prayer, ask questions, etc., Moms in Prayer International, with your permission, collects that information and may use the information in one of the ways set forth in the following section titled "Use of Information."

Use of Information

Moms in Prayer International uses the information provided by you in the following ways:

- ♥ Respond to your correspondence, questions, comments, suggestions, thoughts, opinions, prayers, concerns or ideas to fulfill a resource request.
- ♥ If you are a group leader, Moms in Prayer International will use your information to connect a mother desiring to join an active group for her child's school.
- ♥ Continually update, develop, design and customize the content of our web site to meet the needs, interests and requests of our audience.
- ♥ As a registered group leader, member or interested person in the Moms in Prayer International ministry, you will receive occasional ministry emails / mailings.
- ♥ You may be contacted to confirm specific resource or information requests, confirm subscription information, inform you of new products and special offers, or provide information we think may be of particular interest to you.

Disclosure/Sharing of Information

As stated above, Moms in Prayer International does not sell, rent or lease your confidential information to others. On some occasions, Moms in Prayer International does partner with like-minded ministries. In these instances Moms in Prayer International may make partnerships known to our supporters. However, we will not give any other ministry your personal contact information.

Donor Privacy Policy

Moms in Prayer International will not sell, rent or lease our donors' information to others, nor send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations. This policy applies to all information received by Moms in Prayer, both offline and online as well as any electronic, written or oral communications.

To the extent any donations are processed through a third-party service provider, our donors' information will only be used for purposes necessary to process the donation.

Regarding links to third-party web sites

Moms in Prayer's Privacy Statement does not govern any exchange of information between you and any third party web site. We recommend you review their policies (likely to be found on their web sites) prior to accessing, but especially before sharing any personally identifiable information. Similarly, this Privacy Statement does not govern the privacy practices of any third party web site to which you might link from the Moms in Prayer website.
