The gift of the 'Moms in Prayer' hour

- I like to share a wonderful gift with you → showing box
- God has blessed my life and the life of many mothers with that gift
- Would you like to open that gift with me?
- Let's see, what do we find?

- Show picture  one hour of prayer – four different steps – these help us to pray and not to talk

- Show picture  - a bible – we pray with the the word of God and pray the word of God into the lifes of our children and their schools

- Show picture  - this is our first step – praise – God, who and how He is – we focus on God

- Show picture  confession - we don't want, that our prayers are hindered – we take a few minutes in silent confession – a clean heart

- Show picture  - thanksgiving – we don't want to forget to give thanks to our God – it encourages our faith

- Show picture  - Intercession – this is the goal to intercede for our children, the teachers and schools – we pray the word of God – we pray in 'one accord' – we pray short prayers – it is the longest part of our MIP hour
